We have a total of 10 women who have joined or rejoined our branch since September. We would love to have many more, but that can only happen if you call and give me the name of a friend who might be interested in our wonderful organization which makes such a difference in the lives of girls and women.

Please add these names and numbers to your directory:

If you did not get a copy of this year's Directory, please contact Liz to arrange for you to pick one up at her house or to have it sent to you, for a small fee.

Correction: Michelle Lemaster wrote to us, "Thanks so much for including me in your new member news. I just wanted to clarify a few things: I am not pursuing a credential in special ed. I am pursuing my multiple-subject credential. Also, I work in a general education classroom as both a student teacher and as a full-inclusion aide for a high-functioning student with autism. We are not in a special ed class. Thanks! I would like to add that I am currently an AmeriCorps fellow working on my community service learning and that I am a docent for the Fitzgerald Marine Reserve. Thanks again!"

We apologize, Michelle. Thanks for setting us straight.

Meet Nafisa Maji, local author of
*The Writing on My Forehead

Wednesday, November 4

6:30 pm, Hayward Main Library

835 C Street, Hayward

Meet the Author Program at the Hayward Library

The second program in the Meet the Author series at the Hayward Public Library will be on Wednesday, November 4, 6 p.m. at the Main Library, 835 C Street. Nafisa Haji will discuss her highly acclaimed novel The Writing on My Forehead. The novel follows the story of Saira Qader, a Muslim American of Indo-Pakistani descent, who rejects the cultural traditions of her family to become a world roving journalist.

When tragedy strikes, Saira's life is thrown into turmoil, leading her to revisit the stories of those who came before—one grandfather's work in the struggle for Indian independence, another's adultery, and a beloved great-aunt's journey to personal independence.

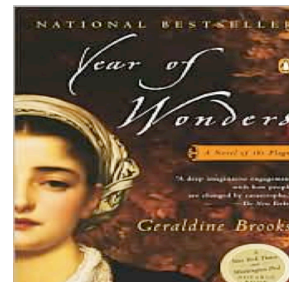

Nafisa Haji was born in the United States to parents who emigrated from Karachi, Pakistan, in the late 1960s. Her family had migrated from Bombay to Karachi in 1947 during Partition, when the Indian Subcontinent was divided into two states. A Bay Area resident, Nafisa Haji will read from and discuss her highly acclaimed debut novel, The Writing on My Forehead.

As in the past, our branch will provide desserts for the evening. If you are willing to bring cookies, brownies, fruit, or any other delicious treat, please contact Barbara Jones at 538.0516 or at bb_jones@pacbell.net.

This program is co-sponsored by the Library, Friends of the Hayward Library, and AAUW.

Book Review Group

The November meeting of the Book Review Group will be on Monday, November 16, at the home of Dee Butner, 4789 Rollinghills Way, Castro Valley. Mathilde Schmidt will review Geraldine Brooks' The Year of Wonders. All branch members are invited to join in an afternoon review and discussion with friends who enjoy books. Refreshments will be served. If you have any questions or need directions, contact Dee at 537.8541. Looking forward to seeing you there!

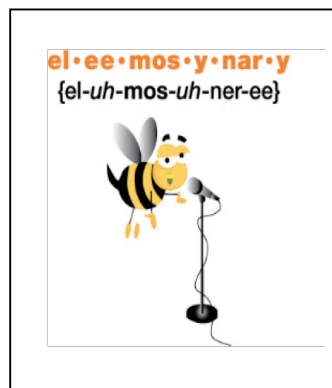

California Conservatory Theatre Production of eleemosynary

to benefit Tech Trek
Thursday, December 10, 8:00 p.m.

This show explores the complex relationship of three generations of women: the young girl who becomes the National Spelling Bee champion; her mother, the research scientist who fears love and life; and the grandmother who overflows with love and fears nothing. A beautiful play that illustrates both the heartache and joy that family can bring us.

It won the prestigious Los Angeles Drama
Critics Circle
Award in 1997

The play appears in a collection titled
Four Plays
(1991)

The cost is $20.00 per seat. The seating plan is Open.

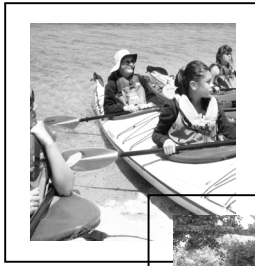

Make check out to AAUW H/CV and send it along with a stamped, self-addressed envelope to Ruth Kufte, 17219 Via Del Rey, San Lorenzo, CA 94580-2734.

Drama Reading Group

This wonderful group will read The Glass Menagerie by Tennessee Williams. Our date for this month has been moved back a week due to a conflict with a program at the Hayward Library, which we are co-hosting. We will meet on November 11th at Liz Bathgate's home at 7pm. All are welcome to join us for a fun evening of socializing as well as reading.

Member News

If you have news about a member who needs to be congratulated on a special occasion or accomplishment, who needs to be encouraged during illness or difficult time, or to be reminded we are here for him/her, please contact your corresponding secretary Barbara Jones at 538.0516 or by email at bb_jones@pacbell.net. Let's let our friends know we care.

Tech Trek 2009

Notes From a Dorm Mom

Tomales Bay field trip. Many girls overcame their fear of the water while kayaking and ended up loving it. They also learned about the flora and fauna of the area and how to identify useful plants used by the Miwoks.

Tech Trek trivia: over 700 girls attend camp each year at one of 6 campuses throughout the state.

Judy Harrison

The TT committee wishes to acknowledge the following persons who recently contributed to TT:

Nena Sabrio,, Mary Krieg, Mary Graw, Jim and Muriel Sampson, Janice Owen, Bonnie Smith, and Alison and Sherman Lewis.

Thank you very much!

Cabernet & Chocolate

When asked about the October 17 Cabernet and Chocolate fundraiser, Liz wrote: Last Saturday evening a group of 25 of us met at Suzanne Barbas' home for a delightful evening of food, wine, and of course conversation. One of our new members, Marcia Prinz, was able to attend with her significant other. We had a great time getting to know both of them.

The highlight of the evening, besides the desserts, was the talk by Gail Steele. She has been an Alameda County Supervisor for the last 18 years and was on the Hayward City Council 1974-82. Her entire life has been devoted to helping others and the stories she told about the juvenile court system and the dysfunctionality of the child protective services were really chilling.

Through the generosity of our LAF supporters, we raised $1000.00. Thanks to Suzanne Barba, Liz Bathgate, Dee Butner, and Helene Carr for their efforts in making this event a success. Many thanks to R. Zaballos & Sons for providing the wine.

Welcome new member!

Linda Sawyer received both a BS and MS at Cal State Hayward in Kinesiology. She then began a PE teaching career at Las Lomas High School in Walnut Creek which spanned 37 years and saw many changes in responsibilities. She began teaching just when the GAA, which was a play day situation for girls, morphed into the Girls Interscholastic

Athletics with real competition. Linda coached swimming and track, became Girls Athletic Director and before she quit was the Department Chair over both the men and women's PE department. In 1976 she began a Girls Invitational Track Meet for the East Bay which was taken over by the Castro Valley Schools when she stopped hosting it.

Since retiring (she flunked this according to her husband) she has taken a job at Cal State supervising student teachers and teaching some theory and analysis classes in the Kinesiology Department. Her hobbies include sewing, stained glass and walking (she is working toward a 26 mile pin with the Regional Parks).

Tech Trek is a math/science camp designed to develop interest, excitement, and self-confidence in young women who will enter eighth grade in the fall. It features hands-on activities in math, science, and related fields. All sleeping, eating, instructional, and recreational facilities are located on a university campus where the camps are held. Our girls attended Sonoma State this year and loved the experience.

What can you do to make this possible?

ADOPT-A-CAMPER!

Help sponsor a girl to next year's AAUW Tech Trek Math and Science Camp at Sonoma State by paying for all or part of her experience at Camp:

- $750 will pay for her entire week
- 350 will pay for half of her stay
- 100 will pay for one day of her stay
- 50 will pay for 1/2 day at camp
- 25 will pay for a trip to Chabot Science and Space Center
- 20 will pay for her supplies for science and math classes
- 15 will pay for her meals for one day
- 10 will pay for her snacks for one week

We know that you want to make sure our girls have an opportunity to attend camp by adopting one with a donation of any amount.

We plan to send four girls to Tech Trek camp in June 2010 for six days of a wonderfully unique educational experience.

Please send your donation to Peggy Robinson, 24527 Marie Court, Hayward, CA 94542. Checks should be made out to AAUW CA-SPF. Be sure to write Tech Trek on the check's memo line. All donations are tax deductible.
